PEACE CHILD

In the early 1960's, a young missionary couple Don and Carol Richardson, moved to Papua New Guinea where they began work among the cannibalistic Sawi tribe. To the Sawi, treachery and deception were highly regarded 'virtues'. They'd make elaborate plans to befriend people from other villages, only to later betray, kill and eat them. The first time Don told the Sawi about Jesus and his betrayal by Judas, the Sawi celebrated Judas as the hero of the story! Cultural barriers like this made sharing the gospel with the Sawi almost impossible. As time went on, Don and Carol worked in two neighbouring villages, who periodically went to war against one another. The cycle of conflict and killing was endless, and the Richardsons eventually decide to move away from these blood thirsty people. The decision to move startled the villagers who didn't want to lose the 'benefits' of having missionaries staying among them. So, the chiefs hurriedly declared peace and stopped all fighting between their tribes. The Richardsons didn't believe this 'peace' arrangement would hold given the long history of hatred, treachery and distrust between the villages? But the chiefs assured them it would.

The day after 'peace' was declared, something astounding happened. The Richardsons were invited to attend a ceremony arranged by the warring chiefs. It was a solemn and tense time as the tribes faced each other. After introductory speeches, a hush fell over the gathering. A warrior from each tribe stepped forward carrying an 'offering'. The offering was an infant – the warrior's own son! Slowly each warrior walked towards the other tribe, where he placed his offering in the arms of the leader of his long-time enemies. After these exchanges, everyone began to celebrate. When the Richardsons asked what all this was about, the Sawi answered. "You've been urging us to make peace with one another. Well, peace between us is impossible without a 'peace' child!" They assured the Richardsons these two children would be well provided for and protected so that peace would continue between the villages.

This deep-rooted cultural tradition of exchanging a 'peace' child, provided the breakthrough for the gospel the Richardsons had been praying for. They used it to explain how God had given his only Son, Jesus Christ as a 'peace' child in order to reconcile his enemies to himself. Through the idea of Jesus being the ultimate peace child who would never die, Don and Carol were able to reach the Sawi with the wonderful truth of the gospel. Eventually the New Testament was translated into their language, and many villagers came to faith in Christ.

This remarkable story has its roots deep in the eternal purposes of God. Thousands of years ago Isaiah the prophet spoke of a child who'd be born for us - God's gift of a son. Among the 'titles' given him by Isaiah were...Mighty God, Everlasting Father and Prince of Peace! A clear and unmistakable pointer to the coming Messiah...Jesus Christ. Hundreds of years after Isaiah's message, the night sky over a field near Bethlehem, filled with brilliant light, as an angel of God appeared to shepherds watching over their sheep. "Don't be afraid," the angel said, "I'm here to announce a great and joyful event that's meant for everybody worldwide. A Saviour has been born!" With these words a vast choir of angels filled the night sky singing God's praises...

"Glory to God in the heavenly heights, Peace to all men and women on earth who please him."

This awe-inspiring incident was heaven's confirmation of Isaiah's message...God's promised 'peace' child - the Prince of Peace had arrived! The baby lying in a nearby manger would grow up to be the Lamb of God, who'd come into the world to make peace. Not peace in a political sense, but peace between God and those who were hostile towards him. This includes all of us. Because of our indifference or wilful disobedience towards God, we were His enemies. As the Lamb of God, Jesus took away this hostility when our sin was poured into himself on the cross. There he bore the punishment we deserved and died the death we should have died. Now, by putting our trust in Jesus and what he has done for us, we're made right in God's sight...we have real peace with God! And we find ourselves standing where we've always hoped we might stand - in the wide open spaces of God's grace and glory. Joyfully looking forward to becoming all God has in mind for us to be, in this life and the next. This is the true message of Christmas - that real and eternal peace with God is now possible. By giving up His only Son as the ultimate 'peace' child, God cleared the way for us to be reconciled to Him...to be at peace with Him. Through his blood shed on the cross, Jesus made this possible. Since Jesus was raised from the dead, and cannot die again, the peace he made possible is everlasting.

But that's not all; the peace we have with God overflows into our relationships with those around us, where Jesus makes it possible to live at peace with others, including those in our immediate family circle, our church family and also the wider community around us. Followers of Christ are called to be 'peace makers', people who 'seek peace and pursue it'. Peace-making is never easy, but as far as it depends on us, we should always seek to live at peace with everyone.

Many have mixed feelings about Christmas. For some it's all about gifts, parties and bonuses. For others it's about quality time with family and spoiling the children. Some find the annual festivities are sad reminders of lost loved ones. But, when all is said and done the truly extraordinary significance of the events that unfolded around the baby lying in a manger not far from Bethlehem, lit a flame of hope that has never been extinguished. For those who believe in Jesus Christ, this hope is deeply rooted in the peace he made with God on our behalf through his death and resurrection. The promise of everlasting peace with God stirs hope in our hearts...the unshakeable confidence that Jesus has opened a door for us into God's presence, and nothing in this life or the next can ever close it again.

How should we respond to all this? The Magi we read about in Matthew's gospel show us how. When the star they'd first seen in the east appeared over the place where the infant Jesus lay, they were overjoyed. Once inside, seeing the baby with his mother Mary,

"...they bowed down and worshipped him."

Let's follow their example...it's the only fitting thing to do.

AND ANGELS LOOKED ON IN WONDER...

A lowly Hebrew maiden;
An awesome shining anger.
Mary risked her reputation
In a surrender of obedience.
And Joseph,
The man of intergrity and trust.

The child grew into manhood,
Weaponless - yet He pierced men's hearts.

Lord of the heavens,
Yet, for fallen humanity
You laid your life down,
This supreme act of humility

There is salvation in no other!

Mary Did You Know?

Mary, did you know that your baby boy
Would one day walk on water?
Mary, did you know that your baby boy
Would save our sons and daughters?
Did you know that your baby boy
Has come to make you new?
This child that you delivered, will soon deliver you

Mary, did you know that your baby boy
Will give sight to a blind man?
Mary, did you know that your baby boy
Will calm the storm with his hand?

Did you know that your baby boy
Has walked where angels trod?
When you kiss your little baby
You kiss the face of God

The blind will see, the deaf will hear
The dead will live again
The lame will leap, the dumb will speak
The praises of the Lamb

Mary, did you know that your baby boy
Is Lord of all creation?
Mary, did you know that your baby boy
Would one day rule the nations?
Did you know that your baby boy
Is heaven's perfect Lamb?
That sleeping child you're holding is the great, I Am

Mary, did you know? (Mary, did you know?)
Mary, did you know? (Mary, did you know?)
Mary, did you know? Oh

Gespreke met God

Afgetree

Vandag is daar 'n wa van die ou sneltrein van die lewe afgehaak en by 'n vreemde stasie agtergelaat. En inplaas daarvan om met blydschap vorentoe te kyk, Here, moet ek erken dat ek nie hier wil wees nie. Daar oor die naaste bult trek die res van die trein met liggies vol lewe en hier waar ek en my man agtergebly het, hier is dit donker.

Afgetree. Tyd vir rus. Pensioen trek. Geld verdien waarvoor jy nie werk nie, omdat jy reeds daarvoor gewerk het. Tyd vir klere wegpak wat jy nie meer vir sosiale geleenthede gaan nodig kry nie. Daar is iemand wat jou plek gevul het. Jy skep tog nie 'n emmer water uit 'n dam en verwag dat daar 'n holte in die oppervlak gaan ontstaan nie.

Dis swaar om te aanvaar dat jy nie onmisbaar is nie. Maar my Here, met hierdie Lot-se-vrou-houding sal die lewe vorentoe 'n ewige kyk-oor-die-skouer beteken. En ek wil loskom van die terugblik.

Help my om te besef dat hier by die vreemde stasie ook ander waens rondstaan. Hier kom lokomotiewe verby wat ons almal na nuwe ervarings kan voer. As ek net gewillig is om gekoppel te word, en nie gedurig hunker om nog aan dieselfde trein te behoort wat te vinnig met die heuwel begin afsnel het vir my om by te hou nie.

Daar is 'n roete wat U in u alwysheid met kleureprag vir ons berei het. Hierdie stasie wat in die nag vir my so eensaam gelyk het, is 'n kruising van lyne wat na alle oorde heenwys. Kies jy nou, my kind, wil U vir my sê. Jy kan die spoor waarlangs jy tot hiertoe gekom het, probeer najaag. Maar teen 'n stadiger pas sal jy die ou trein nie weer kan inhaal nie. Jy kan ook 'n ander rigting kies: die spoor wat na die rangeerplek lei is die maklikste een om te volg. Daar kan jy luid heen en weer op jou klaagspoortjie loop en raas totdat niemand jou deuntjie meer wil aanhoor nie.

Maar, hoor ek U sê, daar is ook 'n derde lokomotief wat met sy waens rustig deur die mooiste blomme van sinvolle lewensnorme kronkel. Die trein is nie haastig nie. Hy staan stil sodat jy al die mooi dinge kan raakvat. Daar is genoeg tyd om aan die wat verwelk het, 'n bietjie water te gee. Genoen tyd om die swak stammetjie van 'n weifelaar te stut en vreugde te vind in die feit dat jy jouself gegee het om 'n ander, wat met sy rug na die son gestaan het, weer die lig te laat sien.

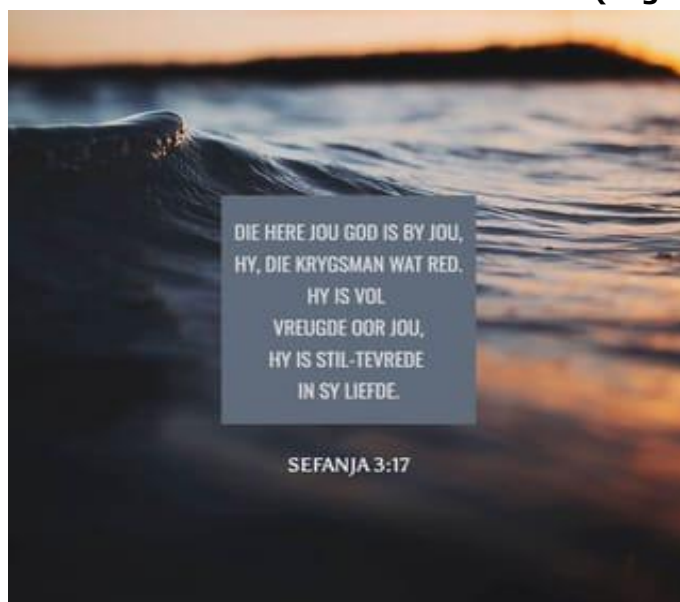

U in al u alwysheid koppel self vir ons aan die waens wat hierdie mooiste roete van almal teen die kruin van u verheerliking gaan aandurf. Weg is die versoekings waarmee ons in ons jeug langs sypaadjes van die lewe wou wegdraai. Hier in die laatsomer blom daar hegte vriendskapbande as wat daar in ons jeug gekom en so dikwels weer gegaan het.

Kom, my kind, wil U aan my fluister, staan met my op die bergtoppe en geniet van my heerlike vrede, wat maar altyd daar was, maar wat jy in die gejaagdheid en eiesinnigheid van jou jonkheid, nooit jou eie kon maak nie.

Afgetree. Die woord kry vir my vandag 'n nuwe betekenis, Vader. My voete rus nie meer op mensgemaakte spore nie. Ek het daarvandaan afgetrap, afgetree en ek kyk nie meer terug nie. Ek het 'n nuwe goue spoor gevind. En in my pensioenboekertjie het ek 'n reiskaartjie ontdek wat al die geld van die wêreld nie vir my sou kon koop nie, omdat U self die prys daarvan betaal het. Bewaar U dit vir my, o Vader, dat ek dit nooit mag verloor nie.

MISREADING

It was the annual service of nine lessons and carols. In one of the items sung by the congregation, I found myself lustily singing "Did the guiding scar behold". Momentarily embarrassed in case those standing near me had heard, I later pondered on the word scar.

Of course, it was a guiding star that led to Jesus yet His was to become a guiding scar. In Isaiah 53:5 we read "By His wounds we are healed". We glamourize the birthplace of Jesus, although, in reality it was simple and stark. But it is not in the wonder of His birth that we are saved, but in His pain; in His scars.

A star lustrous and bright
Revealed to those who would see
He, who still is the light;
His coming to seek you and me.

Yet, His scars were the way
Of the lonely path that He trod;
The price He was to pay
That, by faith, we may see God.

Kersfees gee ons vrede

Kersfees gee ons vrede
en liefde in ons hart
vir ons medemense
in vreugde en in smart.

Laat ons in ons lewe
in God's bestiering glo,
en besef ten volle
ons redding kom van bo.

Kom laat ons nou saam sing
en in die Kerstyd,
vreugdevol ons liefde
steeds om ons heen versprei.

The holiday season presents a chance for you to spend some designated, quality time with family and friends. Additionally, it is a really good time to make sure that your holiday is safe along with being festive regardless of whether you enjoying the festive season in the comfort of your own home or with loved ones. Considering these safety guidelines can help you to ensure that everyone's holiday is a happy and memorable one.

Decorations:

In your home, or that of your loved ones:

- Use basic decorations that will not create clutter. Always be sure that there is ample space to walk
- Keep extension cords away from walking paths to protect against stumbling over them
- Instead of candles, use bright centerpieces of flowers or fruit, or select battery-powered candles

Floors:

With all the holiday decorations, falling hazards can become a problem for the elderly during the holiday season, so make sure to:

- Keep floors clutter-free
- Keep outside sidewalks/walkways clear
- Place non-slip pads underneath rugs

If you are traveling on a road trip:

- Remember to buckle up
- Don't drink and drive
- Do not travel when you are emotional or stressed out
- If you feel tired or restless, pull over at a safe stop and rest for a little while

Safety tips while shopping:

- Avoid carrying large amounts of money
- Don't leave valuable belongings in the trolley
- Don't have your wallet or purse visible. Keep wallet in your front pocket and not the back pocket

And remember in the event of any emergency to dial: 1000, 1001 or simply press your BellMe for immediate assistance.

LOOKING OUT!

Although we are happy, contented and sufficiently stimulated in "our place"- Plumrus, we should sometimes keep a look out for what is happening in the world around us.

A good lens to look through is U3A. What is that; the University of the Third Age, for folk who have passed childhood, the workplace and further education and have now reached the 3rd Age, retirement. To quote U3A's web page: "The objective is to offer mental and physical stimulation and socialisation to senior citizens, through opportunities for life-long learning for learning's sake, in the company of interested peers."

We now have the time to explore topics of interest. This can be done on-line or in person. U3A presents interesting monthly talks by eminent people such as Trevor Manuel and John Maytham. Bird watching and hiking groups abound. Professionals share their knowledge with us at "Your Health" talks and answer our many questions. You can qualify for reduced tickets to shows, join a writers' group, or explore literature, finance, politics and other cultures.

So why wait; type "U3A" into Google and see what comes UP?

Welcome Aboard

Trying to uncover the man behind the name Joey Pillay, is like cutting through an onion layer by layer, without the teary eyes. There are 2 "I's" in his DNA, which he shares very proudly with everyone he calls friends; Indian dad and Italian mom, I guess some would say, how more complicated could life be?

PlumRus has benefitted for close on 13 years from Joey's vast experience gained in the corporate world; first as Chairman of the Board and now as Chairman of our Resident's Committee. With over 30 years of wheeling and dealing for Unilever with some of the most influential business personalities in the retail world, Joey has been able to use this experience in his capacity as Chairman of PlumRus Board.

Another layer, or 3, to Joey is his love for motor cars, painting and his creative cooking skills. He spent many years motor racing around the country with much dedication and passion. I have heard of and smelt the aroma's of a mean lamb curry being prepared at Flat 24. I guess with Indian and Italian roots there is a natural affiliation with good food and wine. I would suggest that you visit Joey to view some or his artistic flair beautifully showcased on the walls of his flat.

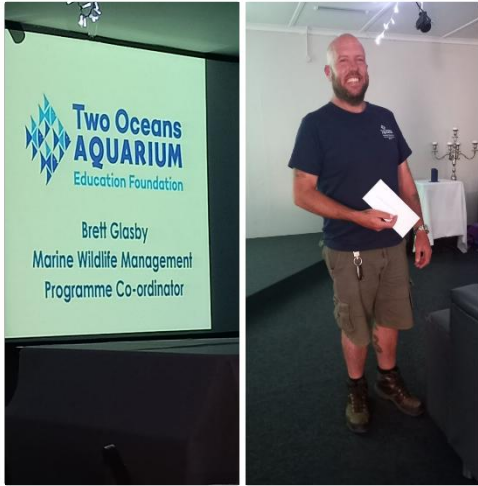

Joey's on-going contribution to PlumRus is valued by everyone, and we are happy to have Ursula and him not only living here but being actively involved in the broader PlumRus Community.

As ek dink aan wat belangrik is my lewe sê ek dit met hierdie 2 foto's.

Dit is my hart, my siel en die rots in my lewe.

The Marine Wildlife Management Co- Ordinator, Brett Glasby, the magic man had us all tjoepstil with his interesting talk about V & A Waterfront animals he has to rescue or control, these being Urban Colonies.

Birds -eg. 9000 Terns breeding on Nedbank building roof all taking off together, pooping on the smoker's heads, the noise, the smell, air-cons had to be switched off in Summer, ideal pebbles on roof for nests then +- 4500 chicks hatched! R1,2million to clean the solar panels.....ALL IN A DAY'S WORK!

Swifts with flu, seagulls in wire & plastic, penguins in the harbour - endless troubled birds.

Sunfish -average weight 400kg, largest 2,5 tons of bony fish, sunning horizontally thus getting stuck on boat ramps or against jetties, they must be tipped over vertically with a crane sometimes to be able to swim again. About 60 sunfish are rescued yearly.

Turtles - 250 plus rescued babies yearly; hatched out on KZN beaches, they swim down warm Agulhas current, at turnaround stage they hit the cold current [about Struisbaai, Bettys Bay], slow down with cold shock, barnacles grow on them, they cannot feed so wash onto beaches. Rescued, spend about 10 months in the Oceanarium & released 30 nautical miles off Cape Point where the water is 25 instead of 7 degrees. Maybe 20 larger damaged turtles are helped to heal yearly, sometimes kept for many years. The tales of Annette, Yoshi & Bob are for another time, much money is needed to discover the secret turtle life with a cost of R75,000 for the smallest tracker on the back.

Seals - about 250 every day in the harbour, sunning on plush yachts, oily, wet 300 kg bodies breaking stuff! 3 plans: yachts asked to put up picket fences, V & A monitors smack them off boats & they build platforms for lounging & rescue. Now divers sneak under the platforms to cut off plastic around their necks through the board gaps or catch difficult customers in a big "butterfly" net to remove thick strangling rope.

Clawless Otters - a recent problem, after 4 years Wizzard brought home a female & turned nasty, now he terrorizes the security staff, chases night staff nipping them causing scary night mayhem.

Thank you PlumRus for our Residents Talk; hint that we would like Brett to return with more Tales of the Wild.

Die koeël is deur die kerk (Daar is niks meer aan te doen nie)

Lank gelede kon vlugteling, misdadiges en skuldenaars hulle toevlug neem tot sekere plekke wat as veilige hawens verklaar is. In antieke tye reeds het die Hebreërs stede gehad waar mense wat misdade gepleeg het, kon gaan skuil. In Egipte het net sekere tempels hierdie status gehad en in Griekeland alle tempels. Die spreekwoord het dus gesê: As iemand in 'n kerk skuil en daar trek skielik 'n koeël deur die kerk, het die vlugteling geweet dat sy agtervolgers nie die plek respekteer nie en dat hy niks meer aan sy saak kon doen nie. Die koeël is deur die kerk!

WORDS / WOORDE

In English many loose words may be used to convey one concept:

Ice Cream bowl

In Afrikaans these words are strung together: Roomysbak

Dit is interessant dat Afrikaans so baie woorde het wat aanmekaar geskryf word. As die woorde dieselfde begrip het, moet dit aanmekaar geskryf word, dikwels met behulp van 'n letter 's' of 'n koppelteken.

Die kortste woorde is bv. en & 'n & is & as

Verskeie lang woorde:

Waatlemoenkonfyttentoonstellinglokaal

Afvalwaterbehandelingsaanlegte

Perdewedrenentoesiastebyeenkoms

Energiebesikbaarheidsfaktor

Wonderpynverligtingstoestel

Rugbykampioenskaptoets

Matriekeindeksamen

Volgens Google is die volgende woord die langste: 140 letters!

Tweedehandsemotorverkoopsmannevakbondstakingsvergaderingsameroeperstoepraaksrywerspersverklaringuitreikingsmediakonferensie-aankondigings!

Ongelooflik!

Dont go overboard!

Kom vannag in my drome

Kom vannag in my drome
as dit donker is en stil;
reik my jou hand deur die drome,
en ons sal dwaal waar ons wil.

Kom, in die sterreduister
sal ek jou siel erken;
soos elke nag in die duister
sal ek jou oë ken.

Soos rook sal ons siele swewe
steil deur die sterrenag,
bo oor die donker berge,
bo oor die donker nag.

Bo oor blydschap en liefde
wat hierdie wêreld ken,
sal ons in roerlose straling die ewige skoonheid ken,

die skoonheid wat ons 'n oomblik sien flikker en vergaan tussen die donker dinge waardeur ons lewes gaan

met ewig-stille weemoed en halwe herinnering
van iets wat was en nog swewe
oor ons herinnering;

van iets wat ons nooit kan kry nie,
van iets wat ons nie kan sien,
die hart van droom en verlange,
die sal ons siele sien,

lief, as jy kom in my drome,
kom in die sterrenag,
en ons twee dwaal deur die drome
bo oor die donker nag.

(Ingediën deur: Lida Herbst)

Mag die liefde wat diep in jou hart wegkruip
die liefde vind
wat in jou drome wag.
Mag die lag wat jy more vind die pyn van gister
laat verdwyn

Dit is in die platteland waar Afrikaans hoogty vier. Daniel, Esme Theart se kleinseun, moes 'n voorstelling doen van 'n Afrikaanse idioom, hy kies toe; daar is 'n slang in die gras.

Iewers is iets nie plus nie, dinge lyk verdrag.

'n Paar lewenslesse wat jy nie net vir jou kinders moet leer nie, maar ook iewers vir jou moet oplak, om jou te herinner oor wat belangrik is in jou lewe.

- ❖ Moenie moed opgee as jy misluk nie, want daar is altyd iets wat jy daaruit kan leer
- ❖ Om te gee, maak n mens gelukkig
- ❖ Vriendelikheid kos absoluut niks nie en dit doen wondere vir jou eie gemoed. Wanneer jy dalk voel jy het niks om vir ander mense te bied nie, niks om te gee nie – onthou dat jy altyd vriendelikheid het. Vir meeste mense is dit oorgenoeg om hul dag te maak.
- ❖ n Mens moet leer om nee te se
- ❖ Bly weg van giftige mense wat jou aftrek
- ❖ Wees lief en versorg jouself
- ❖ Moet jou nooit met ander mense vergelyk nie, want daar is n rede hoekom almal uniek is
- ❖ Verwonder jouself aan die klein dingetjies in die lewe
- ❖ Onthou om jou lewe te geniet

Olive Martienssen – Sunrise 14/08/1931

Sunset 02/11/2022

Mrs. Martienssen has been one of the longest residents here at Plumrus. Olive was a very quiet, sweet and humble lady. She loved her rusks and fruit and always enjoyed her milo in the evening and her 10 o'clock tea in Bobby. She also enjoyed working at the bargain shop, and always bought herself clothes even though she owned a lot.

We will truly miss her and she will always have a special place in our hearts. Rest in Peace.

Olive Martienssen passed away on Wednesday 2nd November. She is survived by her son, Karl, and daughter, Ingrid, and their respective spouses Grace and Shaun. Three grandchildren: Eldoray (26), Luke (20) and Guy (17) will also miss her dearly. Most people will remember Olive by her smile, and her baking and gardening. The kitchen and the outdoors were indeed her happy places. Olive was always positive and had resilient philosophy to life. Olive was one of 8 children in the Salt family and the second youngest. She outlived them all. She grew up in Sedgefield and then lived in Cape Town when she married.

Olive was renowned for her scones and pancakes. She loved cooking for people and all were welcome for a cuppa and hearty treat in her kitchen. One funny thing about Olive is that, despite her name, she didn't actually like olives, black or green. She never bought them or ate them! In the garden Olive grew all her own plants, from cuttings or seeds. She created showcase gardens that were a riot of colour, with zinnias, dahlias, hydrangeas, roses, cosmos, ageratum, gazanias, snapdragons and stocks; and she never visited anyone without taking them a colourful bunch of her garden flowers.

Olive's last words, spoken to Karl, just before she slipped away, were "hold my hand". Holding hands is such a powerful symbol. So please remember to do what Covid and lockdowns denied us for so long - reach out to loved ones and reach out to friends. Hold each other's hands often and feel the love and energy of humanity, and in doing so remember dear Olive.

"I appreciate so much all your kind and thoughtful planning and organizing of every aspect of this special event. The venue and decor was beautifully set out and the spread of super eats was most delicious. I thought the 2 massive birthday cakes were amazing too! The organizing of the sound system and presentation of photos and items on the big screen was brilliant.

The very kind words, tributes and wishes expressed in all the speeches were much enjoyed and appreciated. It was fantastic that my mom's birthday could be celebrated by the whole Rusoord community. Please extend my gratitude to George, Wilbur and the board for this extremely generous and kind gesture.

It means a great deal to my family to know that our mom is in such caring hands at Rusoord. Every time I visit, I am encouraged and impressed by the friendliness, warmth and helpfulness of all the staff, right from reception to the carers and nursing staff who pop in to check on my mom."

*On Tuesday 8th November we had a birthday party to remember. I have been a resident of Plumrus for 10 years & I don't think I have been to such a joyous event before. Of course, the gorgeous birthday girl was the star of the show, but she was so ably made centre stage by the decor & the delicious food. A very big gold medal must go to the PlumRus team for doing such a memorable job. (Submitted: Dianne Slabbert)

"It's in responsibility that most people find the meaning that sustains them through life. It's not in happiness. It's not in impulsive pleasure."

This is a note of sincere thanks to all my friends at Rusoord, for the wonderful wishes I received on my 100th birthday.

If I were to attempt a thank-you note for each one, it would take me another 100 years, so please accept this brief message of appreciation to each one who sent me such loving messages; they mean a great deal to me!

May each one of you beat my record and reach your 200th birthday with our Lord's presence at your side each day.

I wish His rich blessings to you all; from Margaret Raven.

To the Management, Staff and Friends of PlumRus

Thank you all for all your kindness and concern whilst I was being rehabilitated after Covid Delta, also for the use of appliances to assist me in my recovery.

*I wish you all of the best for the future. Enjoy the peace and quiet now that I have gone. Special thanks to Eric for Thursdays.

"Thank you to all the Rusoord staff and residents who cared about mom throughout her 20 years living here. Olive was very proud of Rusoord, doing her part by working in the bargain shop, doing the bingo evenings, doing the gardens, making pancakes on Wednesdays, knitting for charity, etc. She looked forward to all the entertainment events at Rusoord. For many years one could never get Olive on the phone as she was never in her flat, but always out and busy with something. Her family attribute the atmosphere and success of Rusoord to the outstanding management and the angels that are the staff, and the wonderful, wonderful residents. Christian goodwill pervades every aspect of Rusoord and Olive was so happy here."

CSC spog met 'n troue, op die 28 Oktober 2022.

Gailine Williams het in die huwelik getree met Andrew Chung. Ons wens is dat die Here hulle sal ryklik seën en dat hulle altyd Hom in al hulle planne sal insluit.

Lemé Stoltz was born on the 10th November 2022 @ 12:15. She is tiny but already fearless, she surprised us with her early arrival. At 36 weeks, she was perfectly healthy and weighed in at 2.780kg. She is tall like her dad and measured 50.5cm.

We are excited, nervous, in love and just whole heartedly happy with being her parents. She is the sweetest and cutest little girl. We thank our Lord for trusting us with her.

We would just like to thank everyone from the Residents to the staff that kept us in their prayers and for all the well wishes received.

She will come and visit everyone soon.

Love Paul & Juanita

Dear Hailey, Divana and Paton,

Though we won't be together at Christmas time, know that we love you and we wish we could be there. May love and laughter fill your home during this festive season. God bless and keep you. We miss you girls so much. Enjoy your gifts, they are small but filled with love.
Simone

Christmas Blessings to Samson & Laura - Farmor loves you both so much. Last year's blessings are this year's memories.

If money was not a problem; where would you like to go on holiday, and why?

George - sonder om te blik of te bloos – Walt Disney Oord Orlando USA as dit 'n oorsee se vakansie is. Dit is 'n fees van keuses en dit stop nooit nie 24 uur per dag. Veral die "Cowboy Bar" op Pleasure Island is iets besonders. In Suid Afrika: Yzerfontein (maar nie in skoolvakansies nie), dit is mooi, dit is skoon, dit is rustig, dit is 'n tyd om af te skakel, te kuier en te braai.

Simoné - The Kruger National Park, I can just imagine myself sitting comfortably on a wooden deck, watching the sunset out in the bushveld, with an elephant or two walking by, that would be a dream come true.

Chris - Suidkus; tussen George en Jeffreys' Bay, Nature's Valley, ook Hermanus omgewing

Welcome to all our family and friends visiting Cape Town over the Holiday Season. Enjoy the beauty of our City, but more importantly; create memories with your loved ones that will last a lifetime.

On the last Sunday of every month (as well as additional dates in Dec), The Kirstenbosch Craft Market in Cape Town takes place in the grounds of "The Cottages" which are located opposite the main entrance to the Kirstenbosch Botanical Gardens. Here, you will find 250 local artists and crafters showcasing and selling a variety of hand-crafted gifts and keepsakes at great prices.

Handmade toys, beautifully detailed clothing, ornaments, kitchenware, décor items and so much more are on offer at this lively market. The friendly vendors are keen to welcome visitors and share their insights into the fresh produce and gorgeous finds. Of course, the market wouldn't be complete without some moreish treats and a hot coffee, an ice-cold craft beer (perfect for summer days), or an acclaimed South African wine.

Live music always sets a fun tone. The different artists that make their appearances at the Kirstenbosch Craft Market certainly do their bit in getting the vibe going.

The Pinelands Craft & Gift Fair takes place every December (5th to 22nd) in the Kent Hall at Pinelands High School. This cashless market lends a wonderful opportunity for locals as well as visitors to do their Christmas and end of year gift shopping in a relaxed, safe and friendly environment.

It is a wonderful concept where a selection of gifts exhibited by 200 crafters has one central pay-point with credit card facilities and a streamlined exit, making it easy for customers to get all their shopping done in one go.

Interesting market at a cosmopolitan location. If you don't know Muizenberg then go and check the locals hanging out here. And I am not only talking about the vendors. No. The patrons. They arrive in colour, kids, dogs (few), old, and young. On a Friday it becomes a party.

Grab some local food, wine or a beer and plonk on a bench near these locals. It will not take long to become friends. It's fun. It's Muizenberg. And it's the real authentic deal

- The food is very good.
- Alcohol seems to be priced reasonably for the quality, and it's also well-stocked in the restaurant.
- The service is friendly and helpful.
- Indoor location means no weather issues.
- This place is a great local spot with a vibe.
- They support local businesses

Open: Every Thursday 4 pm to 9 pm and every Friday 4 pm to 10 pm

Who is a Grandmother.....?

- 🧓 Usually they are so clever they know all answers
- 🧓 She wears glasses and smart dresses
- 🧓 She can take her teeth out
- 🧓 Everybody should try to have a grandmother, especially if you don't have television because they are the only grownups who like to spend time with us...

O Little Town of Bethlehem

O little town of Bethlehem
How still we see thee lie
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The silent stars go by
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting Light
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee tonight

For Christ is born of Mary
And gathered all above
While mortals sleep, the angels keep
Their watch of wondering love
O morning stars together
Proclaim the holy birth
And praises sing to God the King
And Peace to men on earth

How silently, how silently
The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of His heaven.
No ear may hear His coming,
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive him still,
The dear Christ enters in.

O holy Child of Bethlehem
Descend to us, we pray
Cast out our sin and enter in
Be born to us today
We hear the Christmas angels
The great glad tidings tell
O come to us, abide with us
Our Lord Emmanuel

New Year's Wishes

PlumRus, management and staff would like to wish everyone a Merry Christmas as we head towards the New Year.

With a world in turmoil and disarray, let's not forget Who this holiday honors. The very Person upon which the measurement of days, months and years are literally intended and presented on calendars.

We at PlumRus humbly approach this new year of 2023 with our reliance upon Him, and we want to wish all our residents, families, and staff a happy and prosperous New Year.
